Foreign Intelligence.

UPPER RHINE, Sept. 17.

The Archduke Charles has ſent the following letter to Salm, commandant at Philipſburg, dated head quarters Entzwelhingen, Sept. 13.

"I have received your letter of yeſterday, in which you informed me of the ſiege of the fortreſs of Philipſberg being raiſed. I haſten to expreſs to you my entire ſatisfaction and applauſe of the brave and diſtinguiſhed defence which you have made, and beg you will thank the brave officers and garriſon in my name.—This able and glorious defence proves that I have made the happieſt choice in filling that poſt, and fully juſtifies the high opinion which I had, during the war, of your great military ſkill. A courier is juſt ſetting off to recommend you and your brave garriſon to his imperial majeſty, and I am convinced that he will be highly ſatisfied with your behavior. I expect a full account of the whole of your proceedings with anxiety, which I am perſuaded, will be a laſting monument of the deeds of the brave garriſon in the annals of the preſent war.

(Signed) CHARLES,
Archduke."

The loſs of the French, before Philipſburg, according to the ſtatements of their own priſoners, amounts to nearly 1000 men; the garriſon loſt not more than 50 men.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 19.

The Executive Directory has ordered the formation of an army, to extend between the Meuſe, the Vecht, Dieſt, Herenthals and Antwerp—This army will be called the army of the North, its right wing will be covered by the Scheldt, its left by the Meuſe.

General Tilly, commander in chief in the united departments, is appointed commander of this army, under the command of gen. Brune.

Engineers have been already to examine the poſition, and to trace out the camps. New magazines will be eſtabliſhed at Maeſtricht, Liege, and in the citadel of Antwerp, for this army.

Letters from the Rhine announce that the Auſtrians and peaſants have croſſed the Nidda at ſeveral points, and have obliged the French to re-croſs that river.

Orders are received at Luxembourg and ſeveral other places where there are magazines of warlike ſtores, to ſend to Mentz 100 waggons with all ſorts of proviſions for that fortreſs.

All the veſſels and ſmall ſloops in the ports of Holland have been put in requiſition to carry the wounded French troops in our hoſpitals.

Bergen-op-Zoom, Breda, Bois-le-Duc, Grave, and other ſtrong places, are putting in a ſtate of defence, leſt the Anglo Ruſſians ſhould make the conqueſt of Batavia.

Extract of a letter from Frankford, Sept. 21.

The joy manifeſted by the inhabitants of Manheim at the entrance of the Archduke Carl hs and his Imperial Generals, was beyond conception. During the ſevere engagement in which Neckerau was taken, many balls were thrown in the city, even after the Imperials had poſſeſſion of it; the French ſent a great number of balls from the left bank in here, they however, were anſwered from the mouth of cannon, brot outſide of the city for that purpoſe, the firing on both ſides ceaſed at 2 o'clock.—The city has ſuffered very little in regard of buildings, conſidering the manner in which it was taken. The Imperialiſts after the city had been taken by ſtorm, behaved with a great degree of heroiſm, no outrage nor exceſs has been committed by them. The Prince left the city after a ſtay of but a few hours, and went to his former head quarters at Schwezingen. The number of French taken in this place was too conſiderable to be removed; in conſequence of the bridge being damaged in their retreat from Manheim, the French took ſeveral very reſpectable citizens as hoſtages, who however were ſent back without injury.

"The troops raiſed about the environs of Mentz, form a line from Erpenheim to Wiſbaden; the latter place has been evacuated by the French: theſe ſeveral days paſt they have withdrawn themſelves from the two former places towards Ehrenbreitſtein."

"According to the official accounts, the French have reduced to aſhes 93 houſes in Phillipſburgh, 13 only were left tenantable."

Another letter, ſame date.

"According to the moſt accurate information, the French have loſt in the laſt engagements of Neckerau and Manheim upwards of 2,000 in killed, and upwards of 30 cannon, beſides 1,800 priſoners were taken; the loſs of the Imperialiſts was not inconſiderable; it conſiſted in 1,500 in killed and wounded. It is ſuppoſed that the Imperialiſts will ſoon attempt to croſs the Rhine, all their operations ſeem to be directed that way."

"Freſh troops are pouring in daily from Switzerland, to reinforce the army of the Archduke Charles, which with that of Starrai, will amount to 80,000 men. The Auſtrians have already puſhed forward as far as Limburg and Manheim; the French are drove entirely from Lahn—Yeſterday arrived from Manheim, five battalions of infantry and 800 of Auſtrian cavalry, at Lambersheim oppoſite to Wurms; a great number of troops are alſo arrived at Heidelberg; they ſeem to be deſtined for the recapture of Mentz. It is well known that Mentz is not at preſent in a ſtate of ſtanding a ſiege, for previous to the capture of Manheim orders were received to bring a park of heavy artillery from Landau to that place, but the reduction of Manheim has been ſo ſpeedily effected, that theſe orders could not be executed."

VIENNA, Sept. 14.

The Archduke Palatine will depart in a fortnight with the Prince of Averſperg and a numerous ſuite for Peterſburg, there to eſpouſe the Ruſſian Grand Dutcheſs.

The Emperor of Ruſſia has ſent to Cardinall Ruffo the order of St. Andrew with a very flattering letter.

FROM ITALY, Sept. 19.

In order that the Emperor, after the departure of the Ruſſians for Switzerland, may not be under the neceſſity of maintaining ſo many troops for garriſons in Italy, a general confederation has taken place among the Italian kings and princes, for the purpoſe of raiſing powerful armies for the defence of the whole, that of Piedmont is to conſiſt of 20,000 men.

The commander of the Neapolitans, Rodio, who acts againſt Rome, ſigns himſelf in his Proclamations, Doctor at Law. The ſcattered cardinals are now by degrees convening at Pavia. Five hundred Turks have taken a French out work at Ancona by ſtorm.

UPPER RHINE, Sept. 16.

The following is the ſummons on the part of the French to the commander of Philipſburg, the Rhingrave of Salm:

Mr. Commandant,

The fortreſs which you defend, is now blockaded upon all ſides, and a ſtrong army covers the blockade. Every thing is ready to bury you and the troops of the garriſon under its ruins! In the name of humanity, I demand of you to prevent the effuſion of blood, and your inevitable ruin, by ſurrendering the fortreſs of Philipſburg to the French troops. I allow you two hours for conſideration; if this time is elapſed fruitleſs, force alone will be my guide and my law.

I ſalute you with eſteem,
The General of diviſion and commander of the blockade of Philipſburg, 20th Fructidor, (6 Sept.)
(Signed) LASOLLE.

THE ANSWER WAS—

General!

I cannot anſwer your ſummons, which juſt now has been delivered to me, in any other way than that of a man of honor and a ſoldier, that is, that I will do my duty, and uſe all means in my power, to repulſe the attack of which you inform me.

I aſſure you,
General,
Of my perfect eſteem,
RHINGRAVE OF SALM, L. G.

PHILIPSBUGH, Sept. 12.

We are happily delivered. Laſt night at the approach of the imperialiſts the French marched off towards Manheim; ſince the 27th Aug. we have been blockaded by the French, but ſince the 6th of September we have been bombarded inceſſantly 5 days and 6 nights. The city is a heap of aſhes, and is all burnt down, except about 20 houſes, which are all likewiſe much damaged, of the garriſon 30 rank and file were wounded and killed and two peaſants. The damage done by the French by their incurſion between the Rhine and the Nockar, in ſo ſhort time, is eſtimated at upwards of 2 millions florins.

PARIS, September 16.

Letter from General Maſſena to the Directory.

Head quarters at Lintzbourg,
September 9.

Citizen Directors,

Being informed that a corps of Ruſſians and Coſſacks occupied the village of Wollishoffen, ſituated near Zurich, on the left border of the lake, I ordered an attack to be made on it, which took place on the 8th at one in the morning. The village was carried with the bayonet, and a number of priſoners would have been taken, but as the Ruſſians would not ſurrender, our troops were under the neceſſity of putting them to the ſword, and we took only a dozen men, among whom are ſeveral wounded; we took alſo ſome horſes belonging to the Coſſacks, and about two hundred cloaks, almoſt new, which our ſoldiers put on. The enemy by the moſt moderate computation, muſt have loſt at leaſt 150 men in killed or wounded: the village was ſtrewed with dead bodies. Many of our troops, as well as the enemy, were wounded with the bayonet. Our loſs in killed and wounded amounts to about 60 men. This attack was made under the orders of General Mortier, who commends highly both the troops and Citizen Veilo, chief of brigade in the 1ſt regiment of dragoons, commanding proviſionary the brigade of the right.

(Signed) MASSENA.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE time being fixed on, when the MILITARY LAND (commonly called Knox's) WARRANTS, granted to the United States' army, are to be regiſtered and located,—the ſubſcribers have explored that tract of land on which thoſe warrants are to be laid; with a view, and for the purpoſe of offering their ſervices as locaters.

We take the liberty of ſuggeſting, "that weare at leaſt as well acquainted with the ſituation, quality of the ſoil, &c. of the different townſhips in the aforeſaid tract, as any other perſon:" this will, perhaps, appear more clearly, by obſerving, that WILLIAM C. SCHENK aſſiſted in running the Indian boundary line; at which time he conſiderably traverſed that tract: he alſo aſſiſted in ſurveying and laying it off into townſhips, and at other times ranged over it, to gain information. But to obtain a more complete and accurate knowledge, we have lately ſpent between two and three months, with ſeveral aſſiſtants, in particularly examining the different townſhips and quarter townſhips; by which means we have acquired an accurate knowledge of the whole diſtrict.—We now offer our ſervices to the public, as Locaters, with aſſurances that we will locate every perſons warrants intruſted to us to the beſt advantage, agreeably to their rights of location, which is to be determined according to law. For our ſervices we demand the one equal tenth part, either in lands or warrants, when we locate a full tract, of four thouſand acres or more, for one perſon or firm; the land to be taken in a ſquare, at a corner of the tract; which corner is to be equitably determined before the time of location.—The one equal ſixth part, in caſh or warrants, when we connect and locate any amount leſs than four thouſand acres. We will be in Philadelphia from December next, until after the time of location, to tranſact this buſineſs. Any perſon wiſhing to ſatisfy himſelf farther, will pleaſe to call on us, by letter, (poſtage paid) or otherwiſe; when due attention will be paid, and ſuch vouchers may be ſeen as we have to offer, which we hope will be ſatisfactory.

REVIEW
Of American Publications.

Letters to the Inhabitants of Northumberland and the neighbourhood, on subjects interesting to the author and to them. Part I. By Joseph Priestley, L. L. D. F. R. S. &c. Nunquamne reponam? Juv. Northumberland: Printed for the author by Andrew Kennedy.—1799.

THIS work, as its motto imports, is a defence of the character of the author, againſt the univerſal odium which reſts upon it, in England and America. As our limits reſtrain us from that full examination of this work, which the nature of it demands, it may not be amiſs, in order that a more full idea may be formed than we are able to give, to preſent the reader with a tranſcript of the Table of Contents: theſe are—"Letter 1. of my ſituation as an alien: l. 2. of my French citizenſhip, and French principles: l. 3. of my right to treat of ſubjects of civil policy, and the advantages I have had for acquiring knowledge of this kind, l. 4. of what I have done with reſpect to the politics of this country. l. 5. of the intercepted letters and of the French Revolution: l. 6. of the ſtyle of abuſe in the writings of Mr. Cobbett, alias Peter Porcupine. l. 7. of my religion; a defence of Mr. Cooper and myſelf, in anſwer to a groſs miſrepreſentation of an application to the Preſident." Theſe topics occupy 48 pp. 8vo.

In purſuing this new Proteus, thro' his various characters of an American alien, a Frenchman, a Civilian, a Religioniſt, an Engliſhman and a perſecuted patriot; one is at no little loſs where to begin with him. But, aſſuming to ourſelf a perfect indifference on the ſcore of order, we ſhall firſt take up his character as a politician.

An idea has been diſſeminated with no little induſtry, by certain perſons who have reflected all the variegated hues of his errant and peculiar tenets, that Doctor Prieſtley emigrated to America, with the ſole view of here enjoying in ſolitude, the calm of Philoſophic reſearch; and that he has ſedulouſly abſtained from political movements: the work before us is admirably calculated to deſtroy all thoſe pretenſions of this nature, which have been ſet up by his friends. From his own confeſſion, we learn, that he has written for the Aurora; that he takes that vehicle of ſedition, and "gives it a preference" over all other newſpapers, even the Morning Chronicle, in its beſt eſtate, for "juſt ſentiment," for "valuable information," or for "good compoſition."

Nor is this all:—the Doctor tells us that he ſhall ſoon proceed to inform us what he really thinks of the political ſtate of this country, and this he ſays, he ſhall do with "perfect freedom," and his habitual coolneſs; that is to ſay, with all that deliberate, undermining, philoſophical villainy, which renders the enemies of eſtabliſhed order in all countries, moſt formidable.

Here, he ſtands before us, the determined and inveterate Illuminatus, that Robiſon deſcribes him; a Robeſpierre in theory, burning with true revolutionary ardor for the practice. To bring this about, he is going on to a ſecond publication, wherein he is to proceed to inform us what he thinks with reſpect to "the conduct of our adminiſtration, and even the Conſtitution itſelf. But as theſe are ſerious and deep ſubjects, they require to be treated with much caution. And theſe being tickliſh times, it may be prudent to have a conſultation of my Lawyers on the buſineſs. Poor as is the shed which Mr. Cobbett ſays I dignify with the name of a houſe, I ſhould be ſorry to exchange it for ſuch lodgings as the liberality of this country aſſigned to Mr. Lyon."

It is not an eaſy taſk for one bred and born in America, whoſe only hopes reſt on her ſucceſs and proſperity, and who has long been in habits of taking a deep and active intereſt in whatever concerns her peace, to expoſe in form, a deſperate and malignant deſign tending to its utter ſubverſion. His feelings become traitors to the attempt, and repreſs it.

The conduct of Doctor Joſeph Prieſtly confirms a very ancient and profound remark: Cœlum non animum mutant, qui trans mare currunt. In England this virtuous, this religious man, only "wiſhed for a reformation of abuſes in the Engliſh government, in order to prevent an entire revolution, which he did not think was wanted there:" but certain profound ones, ſhrewdly perceived, that, notwithſtanding all this frothy, lying cant, "he wiſhed a revolution to take place:" he became, in conſequence, the but of popular rage; and, after attempting for five years, to demonſtrate that rage to have been groundleſs, now openly ſanctions it, by declaring that "he wiſhes a revolution in England to take place." Popular fury drove him from his native town; popular deteſtation of his principles, from his native country: "he could no longer live there with comfort, or even with ſafety": America "afforded him protection," and an houſe "with reſpect both to convenience and elegance, ſuperior to any houſe in the country, and excepting Philadelphia, and its neighborhood there are perhaps few that are equal to it in the whole ſtate." But, what is the effect of all this, upon the mind of this pious, devout Chriſtian, this virtuous and humble man? Is he any more quiet, contented, or happy here, than in England? And does he, in conſequence, devote himſelf to purſuits calculated to benefit mankind, or even to ſhew a ſenſe of gratitude, for that "protection" we have afforded him? No; calculations of this nature, are too groveling for the ſoul of an illuminatus—animum nunquam mutat—it doth not become a Philoſopher to change his opinions.

The Black Drop remains yet to be wrung from his heart. The Beadle ſhould correct his judgment; and the Alien Law ſhould ſpew him forth from the Land.

FIRST DAY, OR SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

THE Board of Viſitors, appointed by the Society for the inſtitution and ſupport of the Firſt Day, or Sunday Schools, beg leave to inform their fellow citizens, that they are opened, at the uſual places, for the reception of Scholars, at ſuch hours as will not interfere with thoſe dedicated to Divine Worſhip.

The utility of this Inſtitution has been much greater than could have been expected, and with additional funds, might be much more extended.

The children of the indigent and laborious poor, are ſuperintended by reputable and aſſiduous teachers, are furniſhed with books, pens, ink and paper: and are thus reſcued from ſavage ignorance, acquire habits of order and induſtry, and hereby qualified to be good ſervants, good apprentices, and we hope, they will become, good maſters and good citizens.

They earneſtly ſolicit all influential Characters, in the City and Liberties, particularly their friends in Southwark, (as the School in that diſtrict is at preſent ſmall) to aſſiſt in this benevolent undertaking, by urging ſuch children as may be ſuitable objects of the Inſtitution, to avail themſelves of ſo favorable an opportunity of acquiring uſeful inſtruction.

A School, for Girls, is taught by JOHN ELY, Third, above Mulberry-ſtreet, back of the Preſbyterian Church; one for Boys, by SILAS DINSMOOR, in Cherry-ſtreet, between Third and Fourth-ſtreets; and another for Boys, by THADDEUS BROWN, in Front, nearly oppoſite to Shippen-ſtreet, in Southwark.

The Schools are open from 7 to half paſt 9 o'clock, in the forenoon, and from 1 'till 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

By order of the Board,

ADDRESS
OF THE GUARDIANS OF THE POOR.
TO THE PUBLIC.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

THE exhauſted ſtate of our Treaſury, the enormous arrearages of poor tax, and the accumulated diſtreſſes occaſioned by the repeated calamities with which our city has been afflicted, all conſpire to render an immediate and efficient remedy indiſpenſably neceſſary for the ſupport of the unfortunate objects conſigned to our care.

The remedy we truſt will be the reſult of a candid appeal to your reaſon, juſtice and humanity—we aſk not a boon!—we ſolicit only the prompt payment of a tax of inevitable neceſſity—equitable in its operation, benevolent in its object, and upon the due collection of which, the œconomy and welfare of the inſtitution, ſo eſſentially depend. A deficiency in the collection of the poor tax has ſuperinduced the practice of obtaining loans at Bank, ſupplies on credit and of delaying the purchaſe of wood and other caſh articles until the prices are greatly enhanced, thereby unequally encreaſing the public burthens: Whereas a due collection of the taxes will enable us promptly to meet all our exiſting engagements and purchaſe future ſupplies in due ſeaſon with caſh, to the great ſaving and reputation of the inſtitution.

The unexampled number of hapleſs orphans, which the hand of peſtilence has thrown upon your bounty—the aged, infirm and diſeaſed who look for ſupport and protection from the inclemency of the approaching ſeaſon, earneſtly demand the exalted charity! which you have ſo often and ſo conſpicuouſly diſplayed.

By order of the General Board of Guardians of the Poor.
WM. JONES, Preſident.

PORTLAND, November 18.

HORRID BARBARITY!

Mention was made in the laſt Gazette, of the capture of the ſchooner Mary, captain Blake, of this port, and the inhuman murder of his mate, Mr. Potter. Capt. Blake has ſince returned, and furniſhed the following particulars:

"Left this port on the firſt Auguſt and made Tobago on the 28th, but was becalmed and drifted to leeward. Endeavoured to make St. Croix, on the morning of the 5th of Sept. abreaſt of the forts in the Spaniſh iſland of Margaritta, two leagues from the beach, was boarded by two boats from a French privateer, the firſt boat reached me was commanded by the captain of the privateer, having ſix men armed with long knifes, muſkets, and a blunderbuſs. The ſecond boat contained the lieutenant and ten men, armed as before. After imperiouſly demanding where from and where bound, they began damning the Americans, and immediately boarded me. The firſt on board was an Italian, with a long knife concealed under his garments, who was followed by the captain with ſwords and piſtols, and a Frenchman armed with a blunderbuſs, who formerly ſailed out of New York, together with three others. Soon after boarding and making ſome inquiry, the captain of the privateer pointed at me and the unfortunate Mr. Potter, as maſter and mate; and uttering ſomething, bade his followers "begin immediately"—on which the Frenchman with the blunderbuſs aimed it at me, but fortunately it miſſed fire. At the ſame inſtant, another one ſtabbed Mr. Potter in the back of the neck, who in defence ſeized a handſpike and knocked the murderer down on which the Frenchman, having primed his blunderbuſs, ſhot Mr. Potter through the head. After, he fell the inhuman captain cut him acroſs the thigh and leg with his ſword, and the one knocked down recovering himſelf, graſped his knife and ripped out the bowels of Mr. Potter. They then drove myſelf and the reſt of my people below, and carried my veſſel into the harbour of Pantapa. We were kept confined below for three days, and then myſelf ſent aſhore to the governor, being repeatedly threatened with death. My treatment on ſhore was moſt barbarous and inſulting; and myſelf and crew in continual danger of our lives. The governor and ſecretary alſo treated me very ill—abuſed the Americans, and refuſed me protection. I was then ordered on board, and ſome ſoldiers were alſo ſent to prevent the veſſel and cargo from being injured, which were to be ſent to Guadaloupe. Remained in this ſituation till the tenth of September, when the brig Eſſex, Rolando, arrived, ſhowing a tier of guns. I immediately apprized Capt. Rolando of my ſituation, who memorialized the Governor, on the ſubject, and produced an immediate alteration in my treatment. On the 12th, with permiſſion of the Governor, myſelf and people ſailed in the Eſſex, for St. Thomas's, but falling to leeward, the firſt land we made was the eaſt end of Porto Rico, on the 19th ſent a boat on ſhore, to inquire for French cruiſers and was told there were no French, but ſeveral Engliſh cruiſers on the coaſt. Making ſail to the weſtward, for Cape Francois, at midnight on the 19th, a ſchooner came along-ſide, and fired a great number of ſhot without hailing, then boarded the brig, took the captain and crew out, put them on board the privateer, and next morning took them into a lagoon on the ſouth ſide of Porto Rico, and plundered the veſſel of great part of her cargo, conſiſting of dry goods, &c, and in the evening diſmiſſed her.

The people who carried my veſſel into Margaritta, were French; but thoſe of the ſchooner I am confident, were Engliſh, from ſome of the Windward iſlands, although they pretended to be from Porto Rico, under the command of Auguſtus Love."

CHARLESTON, November 19.

Yeſterday arrived the ſloop Lydia, Fry, Havanna, 14 days; ſloop Betſey, Torrey, Havanna, 11 days; ſchooner Goſport, Tate, Savannah, 6 days; brig Little Suſan, Taylor, Port Republican, 24 days.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Havanna, to the editors of this paper, dated the 29th of October, 1799.

"The current of politics has taken a turn with reſpect to the French: none are permitted to come here, on any pretence; if they do, they are obliged to return in the ſame veſſel, and a war between France and Spain is thought inevitable. This change is in conſequence of a vague report, of the Spaniſh fleet being detained at Breſt, which report comes by the way of New York.

"About three weeks ago, in the Gulph, not far from this place, an American ſchr. of 14 guns, which left this port for Baltimore, fell in with a Providence Privateer of the ſame number of guns, and 54 men. After ſome diſagreeable and haughty language of the latter, he inſiſted on boarding the former which was denied him, and to prevent it, the American found it neceſſary to uſe his guns. After two broadſides, the privateer blew up, and the whole crew periſhed, except the boatſwain and ten men, who ſaved themſelves in the boat, and a few days afterwards were taken up by a Salem brig, and brought in here; two have ſince died, and the remainder are in gaol. The privateer was renowned for preying on the defenceleſs trade of America for a long time paſt."

Verbal reports, which we have not been able to trace to their origin, ſtate, that the captain of the above mentioned privateer announced to the American captain, on his refuſing to be boarded, that no quarter would be given, and immediately hoiſted the red flag: that the action laſted two hours, before the privateer blew up: and that afterwards, when the men who remained alive on the wreck begged to be taken off, the American captain pointed to their enſign, and left them.

We have not learnt the name of either of the veſſels, nor of the American captain: Miller is ſaid to be the privateer captain's name.

The reports from Port Republican, by the brig Little Suſan, tend to confirm the accounts we have had, of the horrid maſſacres of men of colour, by Touſſaint's party; and ſtate, that this party continues ſtill to be ſucceſsful againſt that of Rigaud.

BALTIMORE, December 2.

A member of congreſs from Norfolk, on his journey to the ſeat of gomernment, mentioned in this city on Saturday laſt, the arrival of captain Young at Norfolk from Jamaica, who reported that the treaty between Touſſant and the Britiſh government was formelly annulled by a proclamation of Lord Balcarras, the governor of Jamaica, in conſequence of repeated violations on the part of Touſſaint; and that the capture of all veſſels trading to St. Domingo, without diſcrimination, was authoriſed by the ſaid proclamation.

The reſpectable channel through which this report reaches us, has given great alarm to the mercantile part of our city.

NEW-YORK, December 2.

Our Hamburgh papers contain ſome material facts not before publiſhed, eſpecially reſpecting the proceedings in the Council of Five Hundred—which we ſhall endeavor to publiſh to-morrow. The Royaliſts appear to be more audacious and formidable, and Paris ſeems to be in a violent ferment.

Just Published,

A COMPENDIOUS SYSTEM

Of Practical Surveying and Dividing of Land, briefly comprised under the following heads, viz.

TWENTY-THREE Geometrical Definitions, eleven Geometrical Positions, exhibiting to view the properties and dependencies of triangles; followed by problems and examples preparatory to Trigonometry, heights and distances. Then fifteen problems and examples neceſſarily previous to calculating a Survey ſucceeded by ſeven ſurveys, the area of the four firſt is found geometrically, and of the whole number by difference of latitude and departure, ſhewing how to take an inacceſſible boundary, find the bearing and diſtance of the cloſing line without running it, alſo the diſtances to an inacceſſible corner from the two adjacent corners, followed by examples of offſets on to winding ſtreams of water, ſhewing how to aſcertain the area without the trouble of meaſuring the windings with chains and inſtruments—a crooked water courſe ſtraitened, and a quantity of land on each ſide found by theſe offſets.

Ten examples of dividing land, with many ſub-diviſions, leading into the moſt critical circumſtances that can occur in practice; an example of Interſections, and an example ſhewing how the bearings of a field may be truly taken where the needle is attracted, altho' the attraction may vary in quantity and denomination at every ſtation; examples ſhewing the method of meaſuring by the chain only. All the rules are clear and explicit. This work contains the tables of difference of latitude and departure and of logarithms.

Orders ſent to Joſeph and James Cruckſhank, Bookſellers, No. 87, High-ſtreet, Philadelphia, Bonſall and Niles, 173, Market Street, Baltimore, or the Subſcriber in Wilmington (Del.) will be duly attended to.

March 11th, 1799.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

Purſuant to the act of Congreſs paſſed on the 1ſt day of June, one thouſand, ſeven hundred and ninety ſix, entitled "an act regulating the grants of land appropriated for military ſervices, and for the ſociety of United Brethren for propagating the goſpel among the Heathen;" and the act ſupplementary to the ſaid recited act paſſed on the ſecond day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety nine——to wit:

TERMS

Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

FROM THE COMMENCEMENT

Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in ſize, paper, and binding, will be obſerved throughout the work; ſo that, while the ſubſcribers become poſſeſſed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to ſubſcribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publiſher does not intend to print manmore than the number ſubſcribed for, a conſiderable riſe on the price may be expected to non-ſubſcribers.

Each volume will contain about one third leſs of letter-preſs than the original edition; but, as the publiſher is not yet enabled to determine the exact of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot aſcertain the number of volumes which will compriſe the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subſcribers will have it at their option, either to ſubſcribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the preſent time, or to thoſe only of the Old Congreſs prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are loſt in darkneſs and obſcurity, owing to a careleſneſs in the ſucceeding generation, to preſerve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in theſe rude ages, being called off from their domeſtic concerns, to engage in wars and conqueſt. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been tranſmitted to our days? Time, that deſtroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almoſt inеſtimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their aſſiſtance in tranſmitting to poſterity the labours of their anceſtors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will ſhow the ſupport it has already acquired:

"Reſpectfully ſheweth,

"That having, in our reſpective avocations, frequent occaſions to recur to the Journals of Congreſs, we experience inconvenience by the ſcarcity of them: That we underſtand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed proſecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, reſpectfully ſolicit, as the publication is neceſſary to be diſſeminated among public bodies, that Congreſs will, in their wiſdom render him ſuch additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, ſo that your Memorialiſts may be enabled to purchaſe copies of that record for themſelves.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the ſhort and pleaſant road of Buſſleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populouſneſs of the country through which it paſſes, with ſundry other advantages, which render it ſo far preferable to the Old Road through Briſtol, Brunſwick, &c. long ago ſuggeſted the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New-York. During the preſent year, a minute ſurvey of it has been taken, and its ſuperiority over the Old Road, both in winter and ſummer, has been clearly aſcertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the croſſing is performed with great ſafety and in leſs than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is ſeveral miles ſhorter than the old road, but this is amongſt the leaſt of its advantages, becauſe daily experience proves to us, that diſpatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodneſs of the road and the levelneſs of the country, and, in theſe reſpects, the New Road is, beyond all compariſon, the beſt. It preſents none of thoſe rocky hills, which render the Old Road ſo fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The ſoil, too, for the greater part, is ſuch as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little duſt in ſummer, which circumſtance, added to the beauty of the country, and a conſiderable proportion of ſhade, muſt always render travelling in the latter ſeaſon peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure ſtarts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, oppoſite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth ſtreet. It goes through Frankford to Buſſleton, where it ſtops to Breakfaſt; from Buſſletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny town through Hopewell, Milliſtone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it ſtops at Springfield to breakfaſt, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it ſtarts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For ſeats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee houſe, to A. Mathieu, corner of Naſſau and John ſtreets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich ſtreet, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad ſtreet.

Fare for paſſengers, Five Dollars.

Way paſſengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each paſſenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a paſſenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With reſpect to packages ſent on without paſſengers, the proprietors preſume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of ſtages, they think muſt meet with general approbation, They pledge themſelves to make good every package on the following conditions. The perſon who delivers the package at the office ſhall ſee it entered in the ſtage-book, for which entry he ſhall pay 6 cents; he will then ſtate the value of the package, and pay (excluſive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as inſurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for inſtance, if he eſtimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar inſurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few perſons it is preſumed, will diſlike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himſelf of this ſecurity or not. But the proprietors think it right to ſtate very expliaitly, that they will be reſponſible for the ſafe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an inſurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the diſtribution of the route, the greateſt care has been taken to fix on ſuch places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the paſſengers at the moſt reaſonable rates The ſtages are well equipped furniſhed with fleet and ſteady horſes, and committed to the care of intelligent ſober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themſelves live at the different towns and villages where the ſtages will ſtop, ſo that the conduct of the perſons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care alſo to ſee that the paſſengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no ſort of chicanery or inſolence is practiſed upon them; in ſhort, they have ſpared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very beſt line of ſtages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every paſſenger has found the road to ſurpaſs very far all that has been ſaid of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns ſpoken of with the higheſt ſatisfaction.
